Meg Absolom Being first-time caravan buyers, towing a large van was very daunting. We wanted an off-road van with ensuite, possibly single beds, a large fridge and a good power source, so when we found the Crusader Gladiator Force, it was a no-brainer. Australian Made, fair price, all the features we asked for in a sized van both my husband and I would be happy towing, plus more economical on fuel and cheaper on the Spirit of Tasmania.

Neil Frost I was so impressed that the tiny Gladiator had so many more features when compared to much larger caravans in the same price range.
